

The demonstrated organization chart represents the mechanism for All-out Defense Mobilization.

The command committee of All-out Defense Mobilization is in charge by the Executive Yuan Mobilization Committee. This committee is responsible for the Administrative Mobilization and Military Mobilization.

There are seven mobilization functions of Administrative Mobilization, including Spiritual Mobilization, Manpower Mobilization, Material and Economic Mobilization, Financial Mobilization, Transportation Mobilization, Mobilization of Public Health Resources and Mobilization of Technologies.

There are two main functions of Military Mobilization, including Mobilization of Military-related industries and Mobilization of troops. These two functions carry out the Military combats.

Between Military Mobilization and Administrative Mobilization is the All-out Defense Combat Powers Coordination Organization. Military Mobilization submits demand through this coordination organization to Administrative Mobilization, and in response, Administrative Mobilization provide supports via this coordination organization back to Military Mobilization.
